

Individuals generously supported DOW programs in record numbers in 2005 and 2006, as is reflected in the growth of individual contributions. Gifts made to support tsunami-related projects accounted for much of the dramatic increase in this category in 2005. Nonetheless, factoring out the enormous response to that crisis, individual donations to DOW increased steadily between 2004 and 2006.